

Are the conditions in your apartment horrible, and the landlord won't do anything?

Did they cut your benefits, and your efforts have not made a difference?

Are you tired of not knowing about immigration laws that might protect you?

We invite you to the Fall 2009
Law Technical Assistance Program

WHAT IS IT? The program will introduce you to your rights to help you advocate for yourself. Topics will include: public benefits, housing, family law, and immigration.

WHEN? Tuesdays, from 6-8 p.m. for 6 weeks
From October 13 through November 17, 2009

WHERE? Classes will take place in the HIV Law Project offices in downtown Manhattan (NYC)

WHO CAN ATTEND? HIV+ women

Questions? Want more information?
Email hcharles@hivlawproject.org
Call 212.577.3001 ext. 237
www.hivlawproject.org

hiv law project

